The Peruvian National Pulse Day will strengthen the connections within the pulse supply chain with focus on promoting core themes such as sustainability, gastronomy, and food trends.

The seminar's main goal is to boost domestic production, provide enhanced market access tools, and raise awareness about the benefits of pulses for the people and for the planet.

At National Pulse Day Peru, the National Exporters Association will also introduce its proposal to host the GPC Convention 2021 in Lima, Peru.

The Global Pulse Confederation (GPC, formerly known as CICILS IPTIC) is the nonprofit association for the pulses industry value chain. It enjoys membership from 24 national associations and over 600 members from the private sector.
